Disclosure

BVTech LLC ("Discloser") may disclose Confidential Information to the Recipient identified on the signature page solely for the purpose of: _____ (the "Purpose").

Confidential Information

Includes, without limitation: the BVTech OpsPilot platform and related source code and architecture; internal tooling, automation, and documentation systems; pricing, vendor terms, and business methods; client information; and security practices. All obligations, exclusions, remedies, term (5 years; trade secrets indefinitely), and return/destruction provisions of BVTech's standard NDA framework apply to Recipient as the receiving party.

No Rights Granted

No license, ownership, or other rights are granted by disclosure. Recipient shall not use Confidential Information to develop competing products or services, and shall not disclose it to any competitor of Discloser.

General Provisions

Governing Law and Venue

This NDA shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas, without regard to its conflict of laws principles. Exclusive venue for any dispute arising out of or relating to this NDA shall lie in the state or federal courts located in Wharton County or Bexar County, Texas, and each party consents to the personal jurisdiction of such courts.

Dispute Resolution

Before initiating litigation, the parties shall first attempt in good faith to resolve any dispute through direct negotiation between authorized representatives for a period of thirty (30) days. If unresolved, the parties agree to non-binding mediation in Texas with a mutually agreed mediator, with costs shared equally, prior to filing suit.

Nothing in this section prevents either party from seeking injunctive relief to protect confidential information or intellectual property.

Attorneys' Fees

In any action to enforce this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover its reasonable attorneys' fees and costs as permitted under Chapter 38 of the Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code.

Force Majeure

Neither party shall be liable for delay or failure to perform (other than payment obligations) due to causes beyond its reasonable control, including acts of God, natural disasters, utility or internet backbone failures, cyber-attacks by third parties despite commercially reasonable safeguards, epidemics, government action, or labor disputes, provided the affected party gives prompt notice and uses reasonable efforts to mitigate.

Assignment

Neither party may assign this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other, not to be unreasonably withheld, except to a successor in interest by merger, acquisition, or sale of substantially all assets, upon written notice.

Notices

Notices must be in writing and are deemed given when delivered personally, by certified mail (return receipt requested), by nationally recognized courier, or by email with confirmed receipt, to the addresses stated on the signature page or as updated in writing.

Severability; Waiver; Entire Agreement

If any provision is held unenforceable, it shall be modified to the minimum extent necessary and the remainder shall continue in full force. No waiver of any breach is a waiver of any other breach. This Agreement, together with its exhibits, schedules, SOWs, and addenda, constitutes the entire agreement between the parties regarding its subject matter and supersedes all prior discussions. Amendments must be in a writing signed by both parties. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, and electronic signatures (including via a reputable e-signature platform) are valid and binding under the Texas Uniform Electronic Transactions Act (Tex. Bus. & Com. Code Ch. 322).

Independent Contractors

The parties are independent contractors. Nothing herein creates a partnership, joint venture, agency, or employment relationship.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this document as of the Effective Date.
