How BVTech LLC collects, uses, and protects personal information

Document ID: BVT-LGL-009

Version: 1.0

Issued: July 02, 2026

Effective Date: _____

Scope

This Privacy Policy describes how BVTech LLC handles personal information collected through bvtech.org, portal.bvtech.org, and in delivering managed IT and security services. It does not cover data we process solely on behalf of clients under contract, which is governed by the applicable services agreement and Data Processing Addendum.

Information We Collect

- Contact and account data: name, business email, phone, company, role.
- Service data: tickets, device inventory, logs, diagnostics, and monitoring telemetry from managed systems.
- Website data: usage analytics, cookies necessary for site function, and form submissions.
- Billing data: invoicing details; payment card data is handled by our payment processors and not stored by BVTech.

How We Use Information

- To deliver, secure, support, and improve our services.
- To communicate about tickets, maintenance, security notices, invoices, and (with opt-out available) service updates.
- To meet legal, tax, and audit obligations.
- We do not sell personal information.

Sharing

We share information only with: (a) vendors and subprocessors that help us deliver services (e.g., cloud hosting, RMM, backup, email security), bound by confidentiality and data protection obligations; (b) authorities when required by law; and (c) a successor in a business transfer, subject to this policy.

Security and Retention

We apply administrative, technical, and physical safeguards aligned to the NIST Cybersecurity Framework, including access controls, MFA, and encryption in transit. We retain personal information as long as needed for the purposes above and applicable legal requirements, then delete or de-identify it.

Your Choices and Rights

You may request access, correction, or deletion of your personal information, subject to legal retention requirements, by emailing the contact below. Texas residents may have additional rights under the Texas Data Privacy and Security Act; we will honor verified requests as required by law.
